

Contents

Foreword	ix
Cherishing the children of the nation equally	xi
Acknowledgements	xiii
The British	xv
List of abbreviations	xvii
Introduction	1
The purpose of this book	3
A postscript	5
Who is this book for?	6
Terms used in this book	7
Notes	9
1 What do we mean by prejudice and discrimination?	11
Prejudice and discrimination	12
Prejudice into practice	17
Prejudice, discrimination and young children	21
Prejudice, discrimination and adults	24
A few issues about equality	25
The process of change	29
2 Talking about racism – ‘Getting it’	31
Institutional racism	33
Institutional racism in the early years	35
Some issues in talking about racism	40
Misunderstandings about what racism is, and is not	40
The power of racism	42
Sex and gender, class and racism	45
Racism and the media	46
Being called a racist	48
Can black people in Britain be racist too?	51
Racism and phobias about religion	52
Xenoracism against white people	53
Solidarity	53
Working within a no-blame culture	56
Side by side, living in the same area	60
Talking about racism in multiethnic settings	61

	The power of culture and its implications for racism	63
	Early years services and settings as part of the wider society	64
	So, what are the implications of racism for all people working in the early years?	66
	It's only a joke!	70
	Terminology	74
	What some terms really mean	75
3	How children may learn racial prejudice and the wider aspects of racism	85
	Racial attitudes	86
	Learning to be prejudiced	89
	The effects of racism on children	90
	Embarrassed silence	92
	Answering children's 'difficult' questions	93
	Skin colour	95
	What happens when we don't talk about differences	101
	What specific action can be taken to engender positive racial attitudes in children?	102
	Unlearning racist attitudes	104
	Living in mainly white areas	106
4	Learning from the past	115
	Assessing developmental progress	116
	Books and research on child development	117
	Language	120
	Words and pictures	126
	Multicultural education	128
	Lessons learned (and some not yet learned) in the early years field	129
5	Thinking about racial equality	131
	Child-rearing practices	132
	Identity and self-esteem	134
	Observation	138
	Knowing about history and culture	140
	The role of parents and families in helping their children not to learn to be racially prejudiced	142
	Multiculturalism	142
	Religion	144
	Consultation	148
	Training and education	150
	Early years settings and services, local communities, neighbourhoods and society	156
	Terrorism, trauma and tragedy	162
6	Developing a race equality scheme or policy	165
	The advantages of having a policy for racial equality	168
	The role of an equalities coordinator in settings	168
	The process of developing a policy for racial equality	169

The involvement of families in developing a policy for equality	171
Working with families who disagree with the setting's policy for racial equality	175
Developing a policy with support	177
Working towards a policy in mainly white areas	179
Employment	183
Meeting together in ethnically specific groups	187
A framework to support a 'key person' approach	188
Taking account of groups that may not yet be included	189
Families of children from minority ethnic groups having disabilities and/or special educational needs	190
Families and children with mixed race or ethnic backgrounds	191
Travellers, Roma, Gypsies and mobile communities	195
Refugees and asylum seekers	201
Migrants from Europe	203
Working with young children	203
Everyone supporting one another – everyone belonging	215
Responding to emotions – a case study	216
7 Countering racism and dealing with racist incidents	219
Institutional racism and racial discrimination	220
Racially prejudiced attitudes, racist incidents and racial harassment	221
Name-calling	229
How do we know if children have hidden racist attitudes?	230
Procedures to counter and prevent racist incidents	231
Having a policy on all forms of racist incidents and name-calling	234
Assessing the impact of what we do – recognising, celebrating and evaluating positive changes in children's racial attitudes	236
8 Legislation for racial equality	239
The Race Relations Act 1976	239
The Race Relations (Amendment) Act 2000	247
Monitoring commitment to the Race Relations Act	252
The weaknesses of the amended Race Relations Act	255
9 Government requirements and policies for racial equality	257
The present situation	257
Government practice and racial equality	261
Documentation on the early years, some with implications for racial equality	262
Guidance on practice in settings	267
Documentation and research on racial equality with early years implications, and on early years with racial equality implications	269
Requirements, standards and inspections	270
Assessment and research	273
Qualifications, training and education	278
The need for a national government strategy for racial equality	279

10	Planning for racial equality across early years services and settings	283
	The importance of early years services and settings having a strategic approach to racial equality	285
	A suggested strategy for racial equality	286
	A framework of interlinked components	288
	Taking a strategic approach to the implementation of racial equality	291
	Implementing the framework for racial equality	292
	The mechanisms to support the implementation of the framework	301
	Making it all work	305
	Useful addresses and contacts	307
	References	315
	Further reading	333
	Appendix 1: Some thoughts about terminology	334
	(a) Terms used to describe people	334
	(b) Some other terms	337
	Appendix 2: Further points for reflection on the possible reasons for not addressing racism	341
	Appendix 3: Breakdown of mixed identities in UK	344
	Appendix 4: Sure Start's paper on 'Promoting race equality in early years' by Jane Lane (2004)	345
	Appendix 5: Some of the most significant government documents	351
	Acts	351
	Other documents	351
	Appendix 6: Comments on HM Government consultation paper on the 'Children's Workforce Strategy' (2005)	354
	Appendix 7: Recommendations of Sure Start report on Inclusion Pilot Projects (2003)	355
	Appendix 8: Government publications on racial equality with relevance to early years issues	356
	Index	358